2014 World Mission Offering

The World Mission Offering is a vital source of support for the entire work of IM, including the Wu's new ministry with teenagers and college students in Macau. Gifts to the WMO support current global personnel as well as new missionary recruitment and training efforts.

Contributions to the WMO will be used to glorify God in all the earth by crossing cultural boundaries, with the goal of helping people come to faith in Jesus, grow in their relationships with God and change their worlds through the power of the Spirit. Many of the global ministries that IM supports and develops could not continue, nor could new areas of mission be established, without generous contributions to the WMO. Individuals and churches can give to the WMO year-round.
